I instruct my proxy to vote as follows: [or My proxy may vote as [he/she] chooses on my behalf.] Signed: Date: 44. At all meetings of members, every general and typical order of business motion shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the voting members present in person or represented by proxy unless otherwise required by these by-laws or by law. In the case of general votes for orders of business, a simple showing of hands will constitute a fair vote. In this instance, a declaration by the chair that a motion has been carried or not carried and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the corporation shall be sufficient evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion. 45. In all other matters where corporation issues arise that are deemed contest or controversial, every question shall be decided by secret ballot. The question shall be decided by a majority of the votes of voting members present in person or by proxy. Such ballot shall be taken in such manner as the chair shall direct except as stipulated in Schedule A, and the result of such ballot shall be deemed the decision of the corporation in general meeting upon the matter in question. Upon the casting of votes, a scrutineer shall verify every ballot and inform the chair of that vote's outcome. The chair and the secretary shall see that the actual vote by number is recorded as such in the minutes. If the membership is satisfied that the vote outcome is correct, the chair may at that time order the destruction of those ballots. If the outcome is in dispute, a second count of the ballots, with a witness, will be ordered. The ballots shall not be ordered to be destroyed until the vote is accepted by the membership as being without dispute. CHANGES IN BY-LAWS 46. The three mediators will then meet with the parties in an attempt to mediate a resolution. 2. The number of mediators may be reduced from three to one or two upon agreement of the parties. 3. If the parties are not successful in resolving the dispute through mediation, then the parties agree that the dispute will be settled by arbitration before a single arbitrator, who will not be any one of the mediators referred to above, according to The Arbitration Act of Manitoba (C.C.S.M. c. A120) or as otherwise agreed upon by the parties to the dispute. The parties agree that all proceedings relating to arbitration will be kept confidential and there will be no disclosure of any kind. The arbitrator's decision will be final and binding and will not be subject to appeal on a question of fact, law or mixed fact and law. 4. All costs of the mediators appointed will be borne equally by the parties to the dispute or the controversy. All costs of the arbitrators appointed will be borne by the parties as may be determined by the arbitrators. SCHEDULE A VOTING RIGHTS FOR SUPPORTING MEMBERS 1.1 Each Supporting member will be entitled to one vote plus one additional vote for every $1000.00 of member contributions or fees he or she paid in advance, or for every $1000.00 of unrestricted member contribution he or she has paid to the Corporation. The number of votes held by any one member cannot exceed 45% of the total votes held by the membership. Every ballot in a ballot vote will contain the Supporting member's name and allowed votes. The Supporting member will detach their name from the completed ballot before it is collected to ensure privacy. A scrutineer appointed by the board will co-ordinate and conduct the voting process. The scrutineer will verify the ballots and inform the chair of the outcome. The votes for and against will be recorded in the minutes.	Amended: Simplifies the provision and the language.
